Religious critic has Damascus Road experience...

---

Norm Grant has an extensive background in commercial real estate sales, where he earned the title of Vice-President with one of the largest commercial real estate brokerage companies in the world. Yet at the height of this success he left it all behind to pursue the dream of owning a golf course. Eventually he purchased land to build his dream and then the unexpected happened ... God called. His unreached background set the stage for this strong-minded and religious skeptic to have a very powerful encounter with God. Since then he has walked away from his dream, gone back to school to earn a Master of Divinity and he now focuses his energies and passion on affecting life change through the spoken word of God.

When was the last time you took a significant chance – for good? Norm Grant, author of You Want Me To...What?- Risking Life Change to Answer God's Call (Seraphina Press; ISBN 978-0-9841965-1-7; $14.95) is all about taking the chances which change our lives. Through the course of the book, Grant both figuratively—and literally—jumps off of a cliff to move forward in his life, while encouraging us to do the same.

Grant will share with your audience:

- That God is actively trying to get their attention (both believers and non-believers).
- How to recognize the different ways that God tries to get their attention.
- How to understand the significance of the 'right here...right now' moments in their lives.
- How to establish their GPS life-coordinates.
- How risk and faith are directly linked to God's will for their lives.
- How to understand what God wants them to do and find the courage to do it.

Your audience will be encouraged and inspired to:

- Stop worrying about the 'to-do' list and begin to live the God-sized life He has waiting for them.
- Take a step closer to risking and pursuing God's story for their lives.
- Step out of their comfort zone and jump off a cliff!
- Pursue a deeper relationship with God.
- Impact life-change in others by sharing their 'right here...right now' moments.

Consider this title for coverage or review as it will connect and resonate with your audience.
